

FEI AWARDS 2019

About the FEI Awards

The FEI Awards is an annual campaign to identify and champion the heroes of the equestrian world in five categories:

- Longines FEI Rising Star
- Cavalor FEI Best Groom
- Peden Bloodstock FEI Best Athlete
- FEI Against All Odds
- FEI Solidarity

Launched in 2009, the FEI Awards have celebrated the champions of the sport both on and off the field as well as inspiring individuals and organisations from all over the world.

Call to Action to VOTE NOW

Do you believe in celebrating talent and rewarding horsemanship, dedication and determination? Well now is your chance to have your say.

The best nominees have been put forward and the FEI wants YOU to help them decide who should be crowned an FEI Awards champion in 2019. The voting phase is NOW open on fei.org/awards and every vote counts!

The public vote will count for 50% alongside the vote of a distinguished panel of judges, carefully selected for the 2019 edition. Make sure you have your say and vote for your heroes today! Voting closes on 7 October, so don't miss out.

Simply go to www.fei.org/awards and choose your heroes.

Note: This page has all the latest "stories" and the voting tool, which is only active from 25 September to 7 October.
